THE WORLD AND MAN

A Bibliography for the Teens

I. TIMES HAVE CHANGED

Fosdick, The Old Savage in the New Civilization. Double-Day, Doran, N.Y., 1928, $2.50. A series of addresses proposing the question: "What use are we going to make of our new machinery?"

Rugg, Changing Civilization in the Modern World. Ginn, Boston, 1930, $1.96. A help in understanding modern civilization.

II. PROGRESS THROUGH THE CENTURIES - COOPERATION FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION.

Bridges, The Young Folk's Book of Inventions. Little, Brown, Boston, 1924, $2.00. History of inventions from primitive to modern times.

Buchan, Last Secrets. Houghton, N.Y., 1924, $2.50. Final mysteries in exploration.

Happold, The Adventure of Man. Harcourt, Brace, N.Y., 1926, $2.00. A brief history of the world told as a story with man the hero.

Holland, Historic Inventions. Macrae, Smith, N.Y., 1922, $2.00. Sections on the Wrights and the airship. Stephenson and the locomotive, Davy and the safety lamp.

Lansing, Great Moments in Exploration. Doubleday, Doran, 1928, N.Y., $2.50.

Marshall, The Story of Human Progress. Macmillan, N.Y., 1928, $1.48. View of the main forces involved in living together.

Sherman and Spaull, The United World. J.M. Dent and Sons Ltd., Toronto, 1929, 1s 9d. (Obtainable at Friends Bookstore, 302 Arch St., Philadelphia. 75¢). An excellent history of progress showing the development of languages, art, industry, transportation, commerce, health and government. (Ages 12 - 14.)

Stuart, The Boy Through the Ages. Doran, 1926, $3.00. (Ages 14 - 16) A history of boy customs, costumes, and lore.

Van Loon, Man the Miracle Maker. Liveright, N.Y., 1928, $3.50. The story of man the inventor.

III. COOPERATION TODAY FROM NATION TO NATION.

Contributions to Civilization, Inter-racial Citizens Committee of Mass., 49 Beacon St., Boston, 1930. Contributions of the Armenians, French, Germans, Greeks, Italians, Letts Lithuanians, Poles, Russians, Swedes, Syrians and Ukranians.

From Far Corners of the Earth, Western Electric Co., Dept. 240, 195 Broadway, N.Y., free. (Obtainable also through manager of the local Bell Telephone Co.) Illustrated book showing the many materials used in making the telephone, where they come from, and the people of many nations who help make it.

Gibson, Heroes of Science. Lippincott, Philadelphia, 1926, $2.50. Stories of men such as Roger Bacon, Copernicus Galileo, Newton, Franklin, Brahe, Kepler, Priestley, Cavendish, Herschel, Dalton, Davy, Faraday, Darwin, Kelvin and Maxwell.

Inman, Trailing the Conquistadores. Friendship Press, N.Y., 1930, cloth, $1.00, paper, 60¢. Contributions of Latin America to the world.

Redfield, Dependent America. Houghton, Mifflin, N.Y., 1926, $2.50. A revelation of the extent to which the U. S. is dependent on other countries.

IV. WAR TODAY

Allen, War. Winston, Philadelphia, 1929, $1.50. A straight forward statement on modern warfare, its folly and futility.

Irwin, "The Next War". E. P. Dutton, N.Y., 1921, $1.50. The futility and complete destructiveness of the "Next War".

Maurois, The Next Chapter. E. P. Dutton, N.Y., 1928, $1.00. World conditions in 1962 and after, and the beginning of an era of inter-planetary war.

V. THE PEACE MOVEMENT AND ITS HEROES.

Boeckel, Efforts of the Founders of the U.S. and its Leaders to Abolish War. N.C.P.W., 1930, 5¢. A concise account of these efforts.

Boeckel, The Turn Toward Peace. Missionary Education Movement, N.Y., 1930, cloth $1.00, paper 60¢. Brief discussion of why there is a peace movement and what it is. (Order from N.C.P.W.)

Books of goodwill, Across Borderlines, N.C.P.W., 1926, 75¢.

Hulbert, Cease Firing. Macmillan, N.Y., 1929, $1.50. Stories dealing with international problems.

Leiper, Blind Spots. Missionary Education Movement, N.Y., 1930, cloth $1.00, paper 60¢. Helpful in discovering race prejudices and in getting rid of them.

Matthews, Heroes in Friendship. Oxford University Press, London, 1927, 85¢. Stories of heroes in service to others.

Peaceway Series, Friends Bookshop, London. Also N.C.P.W. 5 booklets $1.50. 25¢ per book. Short stories by various authors. See especially The Fantastic Battle.

Spaull, Champions of Peace. Allen and Unwin Ltd., London, 1926, 3s 6d. The life stories of eight of the founders and chief workers of the League of Nations.

VI. ADVENTURES IN TIMES OF PEACE

de Kruif, Hunger Fighters. Harcourt, Brace, N.Y., 1928, $3.00. Men who have done much for civilization in plant, bacteria, and nutrition research.

de Kruif, Microbe Hunters. Harcourt, Brace, N.Y., 1926, $3.50. The story of Leeuwenhock, the first of the microbe hunters, and of those who followed him.

Chamberlain, Heroes of Peace. Sully, N.Y., 1929, $1.50. Stories of twenty men and women who carried out plans for the good of their fellow men.

Hagedorn, The Book of Courage. Winston, Philadelphia, 1929, $2.50. Stories of thirty heroes who have helped glorify civilization.

Health Heroes. A series of booklets on the lives of famous physicians, issued by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., N.Y., free, single copies.

Wallace, Hands Around the World, Richard R. Smith, N.Y. 1930, $1.00. Heroes of many lands.

Wallace, Heroes of Peace, Richard R. Smith, N.Y. 1930, $1.00. Stories of fifteen men whose discoveries and sacrifices have made the world happier.

VII. THE WORLD BEYOND WAR

Walsh, When the Earth Trembled. Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, International Conciliation Pamphlets, Nov., 1926, 5¢. 405 W. 117th St., N.Y.

STUDY COURSES ETC.

Christian World Education, Scrap Book. Y.W.C.A., 600 Lexington Ave., N.Y., 20¢.

Committee on Missionary Education, Programs of World Service for Juniors. National Council of Congregationalist Churches, 14 Beacon St., Boston, Mass., 1929, 25¢.

Gwinn, Patriotism. Methodist Book Concern, N.Y., 1930. A program unit for young people.

Hunter, War. Methodist Book Concern, N.Y., 1929, 15¢. A program unit for young people.

Bibliography of Books on Latin America. N.C.P.W., free.

Crusade with Christ Committee, Young People and International Goodwill. N.C.P.W., 5¢.

National Council for Prevention of War,
532 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.